It is located on the terrace of the hotel with a nice view on the lanes of the old town.

2 Day: Conversano. All day dedicated to discover Conversano. I love this medieval city with touches of baroque with its medieval churches, baroque palaces and the huge Castle overlooking the sea and.. more then anything else the "Piazza" the real place where everybody gathers and meets. Our hint: The best restaurant located in the Piazza del Castello is the Pascia' the downstairs bistrot and upstairs gourmet restaurant.

3 Day: Castel del Monte and wine tasting-Trani. We suggest to start your visit to the countryside with a easy pace. This day is dedicated to the wine's production. You will go to Castel del Monte area where a very good DOC wine is produced. Visit Castel del Monte, the impressive, mysterious manor commissioned by Federico II of Swabia. Visit the facilities and cellars of "Cantine Carpentiere". Wine tasting combined with local products (burratine, caciocavallo, olives, tarralli and tomatoes bruschette with olives oil). Going on to Trani for a stroll through the lanes of the old town, starting from the seaport, located between two small promontories: one dominated by the Sant'Antonio blockhouse, the other by the cathedral. The latter is an excellent example of Apulian Romanesque style. Visit to All Saints' church. Trani is also known for the production of the sweet wine "Moscato di Trani". Back in Conversano Another great restaurant for the dinner is "Mangiare divino"

4 Day: Ostuni, Martina Franca. After breakfast, departure to Ostuni. Meander through the 'white town', stop for shopping in typical artisan shops and visit the 15th century cathedral. Next comes the town of Martina Franca. Stroll through the historical center and visit the main palaces (16th-17th centuries). Visit to the St Martin's collegiate church, Duke's Palace, St Dominic's church and the church of Carmine. Our hints: The almond milk is delicious here! Stop for lunch at "agriturismo Il Portico" to taste Apulian vegetables.

Our Hint: If you have a sweet tooth you sure appreciate the "pasticciotto" a little short pastry cake filled with cream (delicious when it's hot), or you could choose among the infinite variety of almond paste.
