Vast Array of Products • Spain a special place for special trips

HONEYMOON & ANNIVERSARIES: Celebrate with accommodations fit for a king and queen, literally. Spain offers you several historic buildings turned hotels, where you can experience history. Or marvel at the Mediterranean Sea, enjoy the sunset over the Atlantic from western Spain - all fabulous options for honeymooners. For example 5 star Nixie Palace in Palma de Mallorca for 4 nights, with upgrade, cava, spa treatment.

FAMILY: Spain celebrates their children. In addition to a number of amusement parks, zoos, aquariums, playgrounds, etc. many monuments and museums offer special children programs. What better way to learn about history and other cultures, than by visiting Spain. Visit Seville at the Abanico Hotel, family of four for 4 nights.

FIESTAS: For a memorable trip, come celebrate Spain's fiestas. Whether running with the bulls in Pamplona, dancing sevillanas during Feria in Seville, participating in carnival in Cadiz or Canary Islands, or any of the other traditional festivities that take place throughout Spain. Come for an unforgettable experience that has been enjoyed by locals for centuries. Pamplona during San Fermin for 3 nights.

Enjoy our ALL INCLUSIVE cruise with a Spanish flavor.

Tired of the old way of cruising? Try TourCrafters's new, hassle free concept of cruising and touring with full service packages for all budgets.

Organized clubs for children by age, from 3-17 years old, climbing walls, fitness center, jogging track, nightly programs, casino, SPA, Internet access, swimming pools, several restaurant options with authentic Mediterranean cuisine and of course meals and drinks included. And we have already prepared for you the perfect pre and post tours that can also be tailor made at your taste.

Historical Silver Route Tour of Extremadura

9 day land only package

Experience very different aspects of history, from Emperor Carlos V, Conquistadores, Roman Empire, and the Renaissance period. Step back in time and live in history.

Day 1: Madrid-Jarandilla de la Vera. (2.5 hour drive) Arrive to Madrid airport and pick up your rental car. Drive westward toward Jarandilla de la Vera in Extremadura, Spain. Nestled in the majestic valleys, you will find the medieval castle built by the Counts of Oropesa and the Marquis of Jarandilla, and host to the Emperor Carlos V on several occasions. As many of Spain's towns, history dates back to thousands of years ago, into prehistoric times, with remains of Celtiberian settlements, later the Moors who named the place Xarandilla.

Day 2: Jarandilla. Breakfast. Day at leisure to explore the area or rest in a place fit for a king. We suggest Plasencia or the Monastery of Yuste, where Emperor Carlos V spent his last years.

Day 3: Jarandilla-Trujillo. Breakfast (1.5 hour drive). Continue to our next stop, Trujillo, known as the home to the conquistadores. Famous names such as Pizarra, Orellana, Garcia de Paredes are associated to Trujillo and the name can be found throughout South America in Venezuela, Peru, Puerto Rico, Chile and Columbia. The parador was a convent of Santa Clara, dating back to the 16th century.

Day 4: Trujillo. Breakfast. Day at leisure to explore the area, perhaps Caceres less than an hour drive, or Guadalupe, both cities proud to offer their own Paradores for a gastronomical lunch or relaxing coffee.

Day 5: Trujillo-Merida. Breakfast. (1 hour drive) Merida offers one of Spain's best examples of the Roman Empire, Hispania. Emerita, as it was once called, was so important that a road was built to join the seas to the north and south, Via de la Plata (silver route). Visit the Roman Theater (still used today) and wonderful modern day museums. Due to its long history, the Parador has a long history, being used for example as a hospital, asylum and even prison. What would these walls, courtyards and passages say if they could talk?

Day 6: Merida. Breakfast. Continue to explore the city from where Hispania was once controlled, or perhaps add an optional extension to Lisbon, only a 3 hour drive away.

Day 7: Merida-Sevilla. Breakfast. (2 hour drive) On to Sevilla, for yet another glimpse of Spain's history. On the way stop in Zafra, one of the first cities to be lost by the Muslims in 1229. Upon arrival to Sevilla, return rental car as Sevilla is best explored by foot.

Day 8: Sevilla. Breakfast. Cruise down the Guadalquivir. Afternoon at leisure.

Day 9: Sevilla. Breakfast and transfer to the airport or train station.

> Ask for our Lisbon extension

Per person in double room itinerary includes:

- Automatic rental car, category K (7 days).
- Historical hotel stays for 6 nights in Extremadura and 2 nights in Sevilla.
- Breakfast daily as indicated
- Guadalquivir River Cruise.
- Transfer to airport or train station in Sevilla.
- Tapa and wine and shopping discount in El Corte Ingles.

Southern Spain

9 day land only package

Day 1: Malaga-Marbella. (1 hour drive) Arrive to Malaga airport and pick up your rental car. Day at leisure to enjoy the Costa del Sol, whether strolling the board walk, sunning at a café, or eating fried fish.

Day 2: Marbella-Ronda-Marbella. (1 hour drive each way) After breakfast, we suggest visiting Ronda, made famous by Hemmingway. The views are spectacular.

Day 3: Marbella-Jerez. (2 hour drive) Breakfast. Continue to Jerez, on the bull route, perhaps stopping in Medina-Sidonia, a white, mountain top village on the way.

Day 4: Jerez-Seville. Breakfast. Enjoy your morning in Jerez. Why not visit the main plaza and then a sherry winery visit. Afterwards, continue on to Seville (1 hour drive).

Day 5: Seville. Breakfast. Day at leisure to explore the city. We suggest a boat ride on the Guadalquivir and a Flamenco Show.

Day 6: Seville-Cordoba. (1 hour drive) Breakfast. Drive to Cordoba to visit the Mezquita and a stroll through the Jewish Quarter.

Day 7: Cordoba-Granada. (2.5 hour drive) Breakfast. Depart for Granada, stopping in Antequera for a breath taking view on your way.

Day 8: Granada. Breakfast. Don't miss the Alhambra and Generalife Gardens!

Day 9: Granada-Malaga. (2 hour). Breakfast. Drive to the airport for your flight home.

Per person in double room itinerary includes:

Wine tour

7 day land only package

Enjoy Spain's wines and her diverse countryside, while you drive through the four provinces of Castilla y Leon, Navarra, Aragon and Cataluña. What better way to experience Spanish history and culture than through her wine.

Day 1: Madrid. Pick up car upon arrival. 2 hour drive. Stay in a manor home, once used by Spanish kings. Wine tasting.

Day 2: Rioja. Breakfast. Continue north 2 hours, stopping in Burgos to visit the famous Gothic cathedral. Once you arrive to Logroño, we recommend tapa hopping on the well known Laurel street.

Day 3: Rioja. After breakfast, visit a Haro winery, about 40 minutes from Logroño. Afternoon at leisure.

Day 4: Penedes. Breakfast. Depart early for Catalunya, with a drive time of about 4 hours. We suggest a stop on the way in Zaragoza, with the Pilar Cathedral. Winery visit in Penedes.

Day 5: Penedes. After breakfast, tour another winery in the area, switching from the robust red wines that you sampled yesterday to cava, Spain's champagne. After your tasting, continue on to Barcelona, 45 minutes.

Day 6: Barcelona. Breakfast at the hotel. Day at leisure in Barcelona – may we suggest a walking tour or the Hop On Hop Off Bus.

Day 7: Barcelona. Breakfast. Transfer to the airport for your flight home, or stay a few more days to enjoy another area of Spain.

*Drive times are estimated and can vary.

World Heritage sites in Central Spain

8 day land only package

Spain has several sites which have been declared world heritage sites or even cities by UNESCO. We have put together a route so that you can enjoy several.

Day 1: Madrid. Arrival at Madrid airport and transfer to hotel. We recommend a city tour in the afternoon or perhaps use your complimentary tapa and wine voucher.

Day 2: Madrid-Cuenca. Breakfast. Drive east to Cuenca (2 hours), famous for the "hanging houses", built over a rock above the Huecar River Gorge in the 15th century. Visit the modern art museum and enjoy the view from the modern Parador.

Day 3: Cuenca-Toledo. After breakfast, drive towards Toledo. (3 hour drive), with a stop in the "Ciudad Encantada" which is an amazing natural site of limestone rock formations. Park your car when you arrive to Toledo, and stroll through its narrow streets and alleys and discover its cosy plazas and Moorish patios. Visit the Gothic cathedral and let yourself be dazzled by its spectacular incorporation of light. Again the Parador offers wonderful views of this historic city.

Day 4: Toledo-Segovia. After breakfast, drive across the mountains towards Segovia (under 2 hours). Admire the well preserved Roman Aqueduct, the Gothic Cathedral and fairy tale castle, the Alcazar. For lunch head to any of the many restaurants offering roasted pork, cut by a plate.

Day 5: Segovia-Avila. Breakfast. Free morning to enjoy Segovia before heading to Avila (1 hour drive), a fine example of a medieval walled city and the birthplace of the mystic Saint Theresa. On the way stop at the Palacio Real of San Ildefonso and Gardens, known as the Spanish Versailles.

Day 6: Avila-Salamanca. Breakfast. Time to go to Salamanca (1.5 hours), recognized worldwide for having the oldest university in Spain and the third oldest in Western Europe. Enjoy her beautiful Plaza Mayor.

Day 7: Salamanca-Madrid. After breakfast return to Madrid (2.5 hours). On the way stop at the Valley of the Fallen, an impressive war memorial with stunning views.

Day 8: Madrid. Breakfast. Transfer to the airport on own or stay longer.

*Drive times are estimated and can vary.
